

The New York City Interscholastic Math League (NYCIML)

ARE YOU...

Thrilled to solve problems?

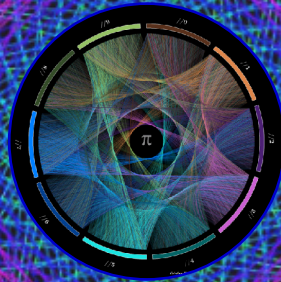

Excited about giving back to the mathematics community?

Interested in working for a non-profit organization?

IF yes, yes, and yes, THEN you should definitely JOIN the NYCIML Executive Committee!

FUN FACT:

The NYCIML is a non-profit organization that offers high-quality mathematics competitions to participating schools and it is RUN by COLLEGE STUDENTS.

BENEFITS:

- Gain unique leadership and management skills working on a team dispersed across multiple campuses
- Join a community of undergraduates, teachers and professionals who have interests in mathematics
- Experience a fast-paced team environment for a non-profit organization

ELIGIBILITIES:

- A high school senior and will matriculate in college in Fall 2015
- Has participated in the NYCIML for at least a year

Deadline: June 7, 2015 at 11:59 PM Eastern Time

Application details:

<http://www.nyciml.org/archives/4103>

